

NEWSLETTER

SDG'S ACTIVITIES AROUND US

FEBRUARY 2022

DOSM/SDG/BPTMS/3.2022/Series 3

10 February 2022

SDG Webinar Series: Quality TVET Education for the Future – A Supply & Demand Perspective

This webinar is organised to discuss the achievement and progress made by Malaysia on Sustainable Development Goal 4: Quality Education. The discussion included policy responses by the Government and initiatives undertaken by the industry and TVET providers to ensure inclusiveness, equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning, while exploring measures to ensure a whole-of-nation approach in key actions in Twelfth Plan.

Source: Jeffrey Sachs Center Facebook

NATIONAL LEVEL

8 February 2022

WEBINAR SDG Awareness: Between Reality & Dreams

Source: UiTM Cawangan Kelantan Facebook

11 February 2022

Urban Thinkers Campus

The Urban Thinkers Campus is an initiative of the World Urban Campaign (WUC) of the UN Settlement Programme (UN-Habitat). The aim of UN-Habitat is to promote sustainable development in cities.

Source: Urbanice Malaysia Facebook

16 February 2022

Kick-off Meeting with UNIMAS Center for Sustainability (UCS)

To discuss further collaboration on Malaysia SDG Cities Roadmap, Sustainable Communities & Urban Innovation.

Source: Urbanice Malaysia Facebook

17 February 2022

Virtual briefing - Local and Regional Governments & SDG 14 implementation: Mobilizing commitments towards the 2022 United Nations Ocean Conference

Closing The Loop (CTL) aims to make the use & management of plastic more circular to increase the recovery rate & reduce the leakage of plastics into the marine environment for supporting the implementation of SDGs 11, 12 & 14.

Source: Urbanice Malaysia Facebook

21-22 February 2022

12th High Level Seminar on Sustainable Cities (12 HLS)

The 12th High Level Seminar On Sustainable Cities (12 HLS), organized by the Ministry of the Environment, Japan and other stakeholders will share good practices of cities related to SDG11 and other environmental SDGs, as well as new initiatives towards 2030. The online 12HLS for two days of which exchange of views and discuss the direction of cities' development will be held.

Source: Urbanice Malaysia Facebook

NATIONAL LEVEL

25 February 2022

The Sustainable Development Goals Deep Dive Session #1

The SDG Session #1 will be an interactive and informal overview on What Is SDG's, what are target indicators, and what has the SDG Centre have to offer. This is one of the ways the SDG Centre intends to share knowledge and promote awareness on the SDG's to reach a wider audience.

Source: Urbanice Malaysia Facebook

24-25 February 2022

Islamic Finance International Conference

Connecting the Dots: Harnessing Islamic Finance to Accelerate the Achievement of the SDGs

Source: Securities Commission Malaysia Twitter

INTERNATIONAL LEVEL

02

FEB 2022

ECOSOC Partnership Forum 2022

Wed 02 - Wed 02 Feb 2022

The 2022 ECOSOC Partnership Forum was held on 2 February 2022 on the "Building back better from the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) while advancing the full implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development".

General Assembly Hall/Hybrid Related Goals

17

2 February 2022

ECOSOC Partnership Forum 2022

The 2022 ECOSOC Partnership Forum was held on 2 February 2022 on the "Building back better from the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) while advancing the full implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development".

Source: UN DESA Website

1 February 2022

Side Event of the 53rd Session of the UN Statistical Commission: Leaving no one behind: Adopting a systematic approach of using small area estimation for SDG monitoring

The Session provides a platform to share national experiences in using small area estimation methods for SDG monitoring; identify areas for further methodological development in leveraging new data sources and the needs for capacity development. The session will also identify steps required to establish a sustainable small area estimation system within national statistical offices.

Source: FAO Website

3 February 2022

Side Event of the 53rd Session of the UN Statistical Commission: Engaging citizens in monitoring and reporting on the SDGs

This side event discussed the potential of data produced by citizens for SDG monitoring and reporting. It will provide examples of where citizen data are contributing and could contribute to the SDG processes based on the national and international experiences.

Source: FAO Website

1-22 February 2022

APFSD Youth Event 2022: Solutions Challenge

This event is the opportunity for young changemakers to discuss and present innovative solutions that can accelerate the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and engage with a large audience interested in the topic.

Source: Unite Ideas Website

INTERNATIONAL LEVEL

Women's Empowerment Principles 101: Empowering Women in the Workplace, Marketplace, and Community

Feb 3, 2022
Online

3 February 2022

Women's Empowerment Principles 101: Empowering Women in the Workplace, Marketplace, and Community

This virtual session provides an overview of the Women's Empowerment Principles (WEPs) and how the WEPs provide a strong framework to support companies when striving for gender equality in the workplace, marketplace, and community.

Source: UN Global Compact Website

8 February 2022

Side Event of the 53rd Session of the UN Statistical Commission: The use of non-traditional data and quality assurance in SDG monitoring

This side event discussed aspects related to representativeness, definition and validation of the data from non-traditional data sources for SDG indicators, confidentiality issues, comparability with other data, capacity building, and the possibility to bridge data gaps. The event also seeks to broaden the perspective of the use of quality assurance frameworks to ensure the quality of the statistics produced by non-traditional data sources and methods.

Source: FAO Website

9-11 February 2022

The One Planet Summit For The Ocean

The goal of the One Ocean Summit is to raise the collective level of ambition of the international community on marine issues and to translate our shared responsibility to the ocean into tangible commitments.

Source: One Ocean Summit Website

18 February 2022

Side Event of the 53rd Session of the UN Statistical Commission: The 50x2030 Initiative to Close the Agricultural Data Gap: National and Global Reporting with 50x2030 Data: Experiences from Georgia and Cambodia

This side event organised by the 50x2030 Initiative to Close the Agricultural Data Gap will use the experiences of two 50x2030 partner countries, Georgia and Cambodia, to explore data generation for national indicators and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) related to improved food security and nutrition, and sustainable agriculture (namely SDG 2.3.1, 2.3.2, 5.a.1 and 2.4.1).

Source: FAO Website

22 February 2022

Side Event of the 53rd Session of the UN Statistical Commission: Global Set of Climate Change Statistics and Indicators

The Side Event provides an overview of the Global Set and updates from COP26 in Glasgow. National experiences on the contributions to and the application of the Global Set will be shared by several countries.

Source: UNSC Website

