Sustainable Development Goals (SDG)

What Is SDG?

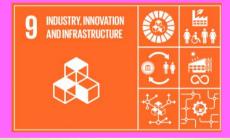

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) is designed by the United Nations Development Programme in 2015 to end poverty, protect the planet and ensure prosperity for all. There are 17 goals to make our world better.

Economic Growth

In Malaysia, Economic Growth Cluster comprises goals 8, 9 and 17 aims to encourage work internally and with partners around the world to promote sustainable industries and achieve full employment for sustainable economic growth.

Promote:

- ✓ Men and women have the same rights;
- Prevent you have a job but live in poverty; and
- ✓ An increase in the value of goods and services produced by a country.

Ensure:

- ✓ A factory that causes no damage to the environment;
- ✓ Everyone has access to the internet;
- ✓ Everyone has access to electricity; and
- ✓ Everyone has access to quality education.

Aim:

- ✓ Bring people and organizations to support each other to achieve a common goal; and
- ✓ Fair trade offers better trading conditions to producers and workers

How to contribute to the SDG?

Change begins with us. We need to make sure we are well informed about the causes and possible solutions to the world's issues. Only then can we make small positive actions in our everyday lives: from talking constructively with our families, friends and communities, to organizing ourselves and urging governments to listen to the voices of their citizens.
